What is your reason for adding a Labradoodle to your life? Please keep in mind these dogs are wonderful but do not do well in homes where there is not enough time to give them the attention, comfort, training and love they desire. They do very well at most work environments. How does this fit into your lifestyle?

Does gender matter? Yes No If yes, what are your reasons for this choice?

Is color an issue? Yes No

What color(s) are you interested in?

Curly coated doodles require more maintenance. Are you willing to take on this added expense?

Yes No

FOR THOSE WITH ALLERGIES:

Does anyone in your family have allergies other than dog allergies? Yes No

If there are environmental allergies, such as grass, flowers, cats, etc., do you realize that your pup/dog may bring such allergens into the house? How will you deal with this?

Most breeders agree that a curly wool coated doodle is the best choice for severe allergy situations. Have you done research and been exposed to BOTH the puppy coat AND adult coat of a wool coated doodle?

YOUR FAMILY:

Do you have children living at home? Yes No What are their ages and personalities like?

We do prefer only placing pups with families having children no younger than six years old. Very young children cannot deal with the nipping that is so common in puppyhood - one of the reasons many doodles have been rehomed! Puppies ARE rambunctious and young families have difficulty finding the time to deal with the training of a new pup AND taking care of their young children. Remember, doodles are highly intelligent and can be very challenging! How will you do this successfully?

USING DOG SENSE:

Please note that 'marketing hype' is just another form of advertising and should not be the only reason for this choice. Visiting other Labradoodles, training facilities that have doodles in their classes, visiting dog parks, doodle romps and speaking to responsible doodle owners are a much better representation of this hybrid than unsubstantiated website claims.

Will this be your family's first dog? Yes No

If no, what is your level of experience with dogs in general:

Do you currently own a dog? Yes No If yes, Age? Breed?

Do you have other pets? Yes No If yes, what are they?

Our pups will be approximately 18" tall, is this an agreeable size for you? Yes No

Does your home have a fenced yard? Yes No

If not, how do you plan to contain your new pet?

Where will your puppy be during the day?

If you work, will the puppy be alone all day? Yes No

If yes, will your pup be taken out for a mid-day break and playtime? Yes No Who will do this?

THE DOG HOUSE: Where will the puppy sleep at night?

Have you given thought to crating? Yes No

Other options?

What is your reason for crating other than 'safety'?

Are you aware of the time and energy needed to care for a young puppy and are you willing/able to accept that responsibility? Yes No

Will the cost of caring for this puppy fit comfortably into your budget (puppy shots, monthly heartworm medication, annual vaccinations, crate, bedding, food, toys, grooming products, grooming appointments, etc.)? Yes No

Are you committed to caring for this dog for his/her lifetime? Yes No

(Average lifespan is 12 - 15 years old)

Do you own rent? If renting, how agreeable is your landlord to you having a pet?

Please furnish your landlord's name and number:

TRAINING FOR YOU AND PUPPY!

For a successful companion, it is CRITICAL that your puppy be enrolled in a minimum of two obedience classes. This would be waived if you can provide us with the name of a trainer that will assure me (in writing) to your aptitude for training. I apologize, in advance, if you find this uncomfortable. My primary concern is for the success of your pup in its new environment. Consistency in training is so necessary, that I cannot stress it enough - not only for the pup, but for you (and your family) too!

What training facility would you be using?

Phone?

What is the name and address of your veterinarian or clinic you will be using for the puppy?

Phone number:

Have you used this vet before? Yes No May we contact them for a reference? Yes No

WE CARE!

We require that a dog be returned to us at your expense, at any point in time, should you determine you are no longer able to care for the dog. Are you willing to agree to this? Yes No

Please write a summary of what your family, lifestyle and yard is like. Pictures would be welcomed.

NAME AND PHONE NUMBERS OF TWO REFERENCES, PLEASE.
